

KINK Events

Premises

Ground Floor

KINK INDOOR: 225 SEATED / 875 STANDING
KINK OUTDOOR: 175 SEATED / 495 STANDING

KINK Space Garden

CAPACITY: 40 SEATED / 100 STANDING

KINK Space

CAPACITY: 36 SEATED / 75 STANDING

Restaurant incl. KINK Space

CAPACITY: 151 SEATED / 245 STANDING

Garden

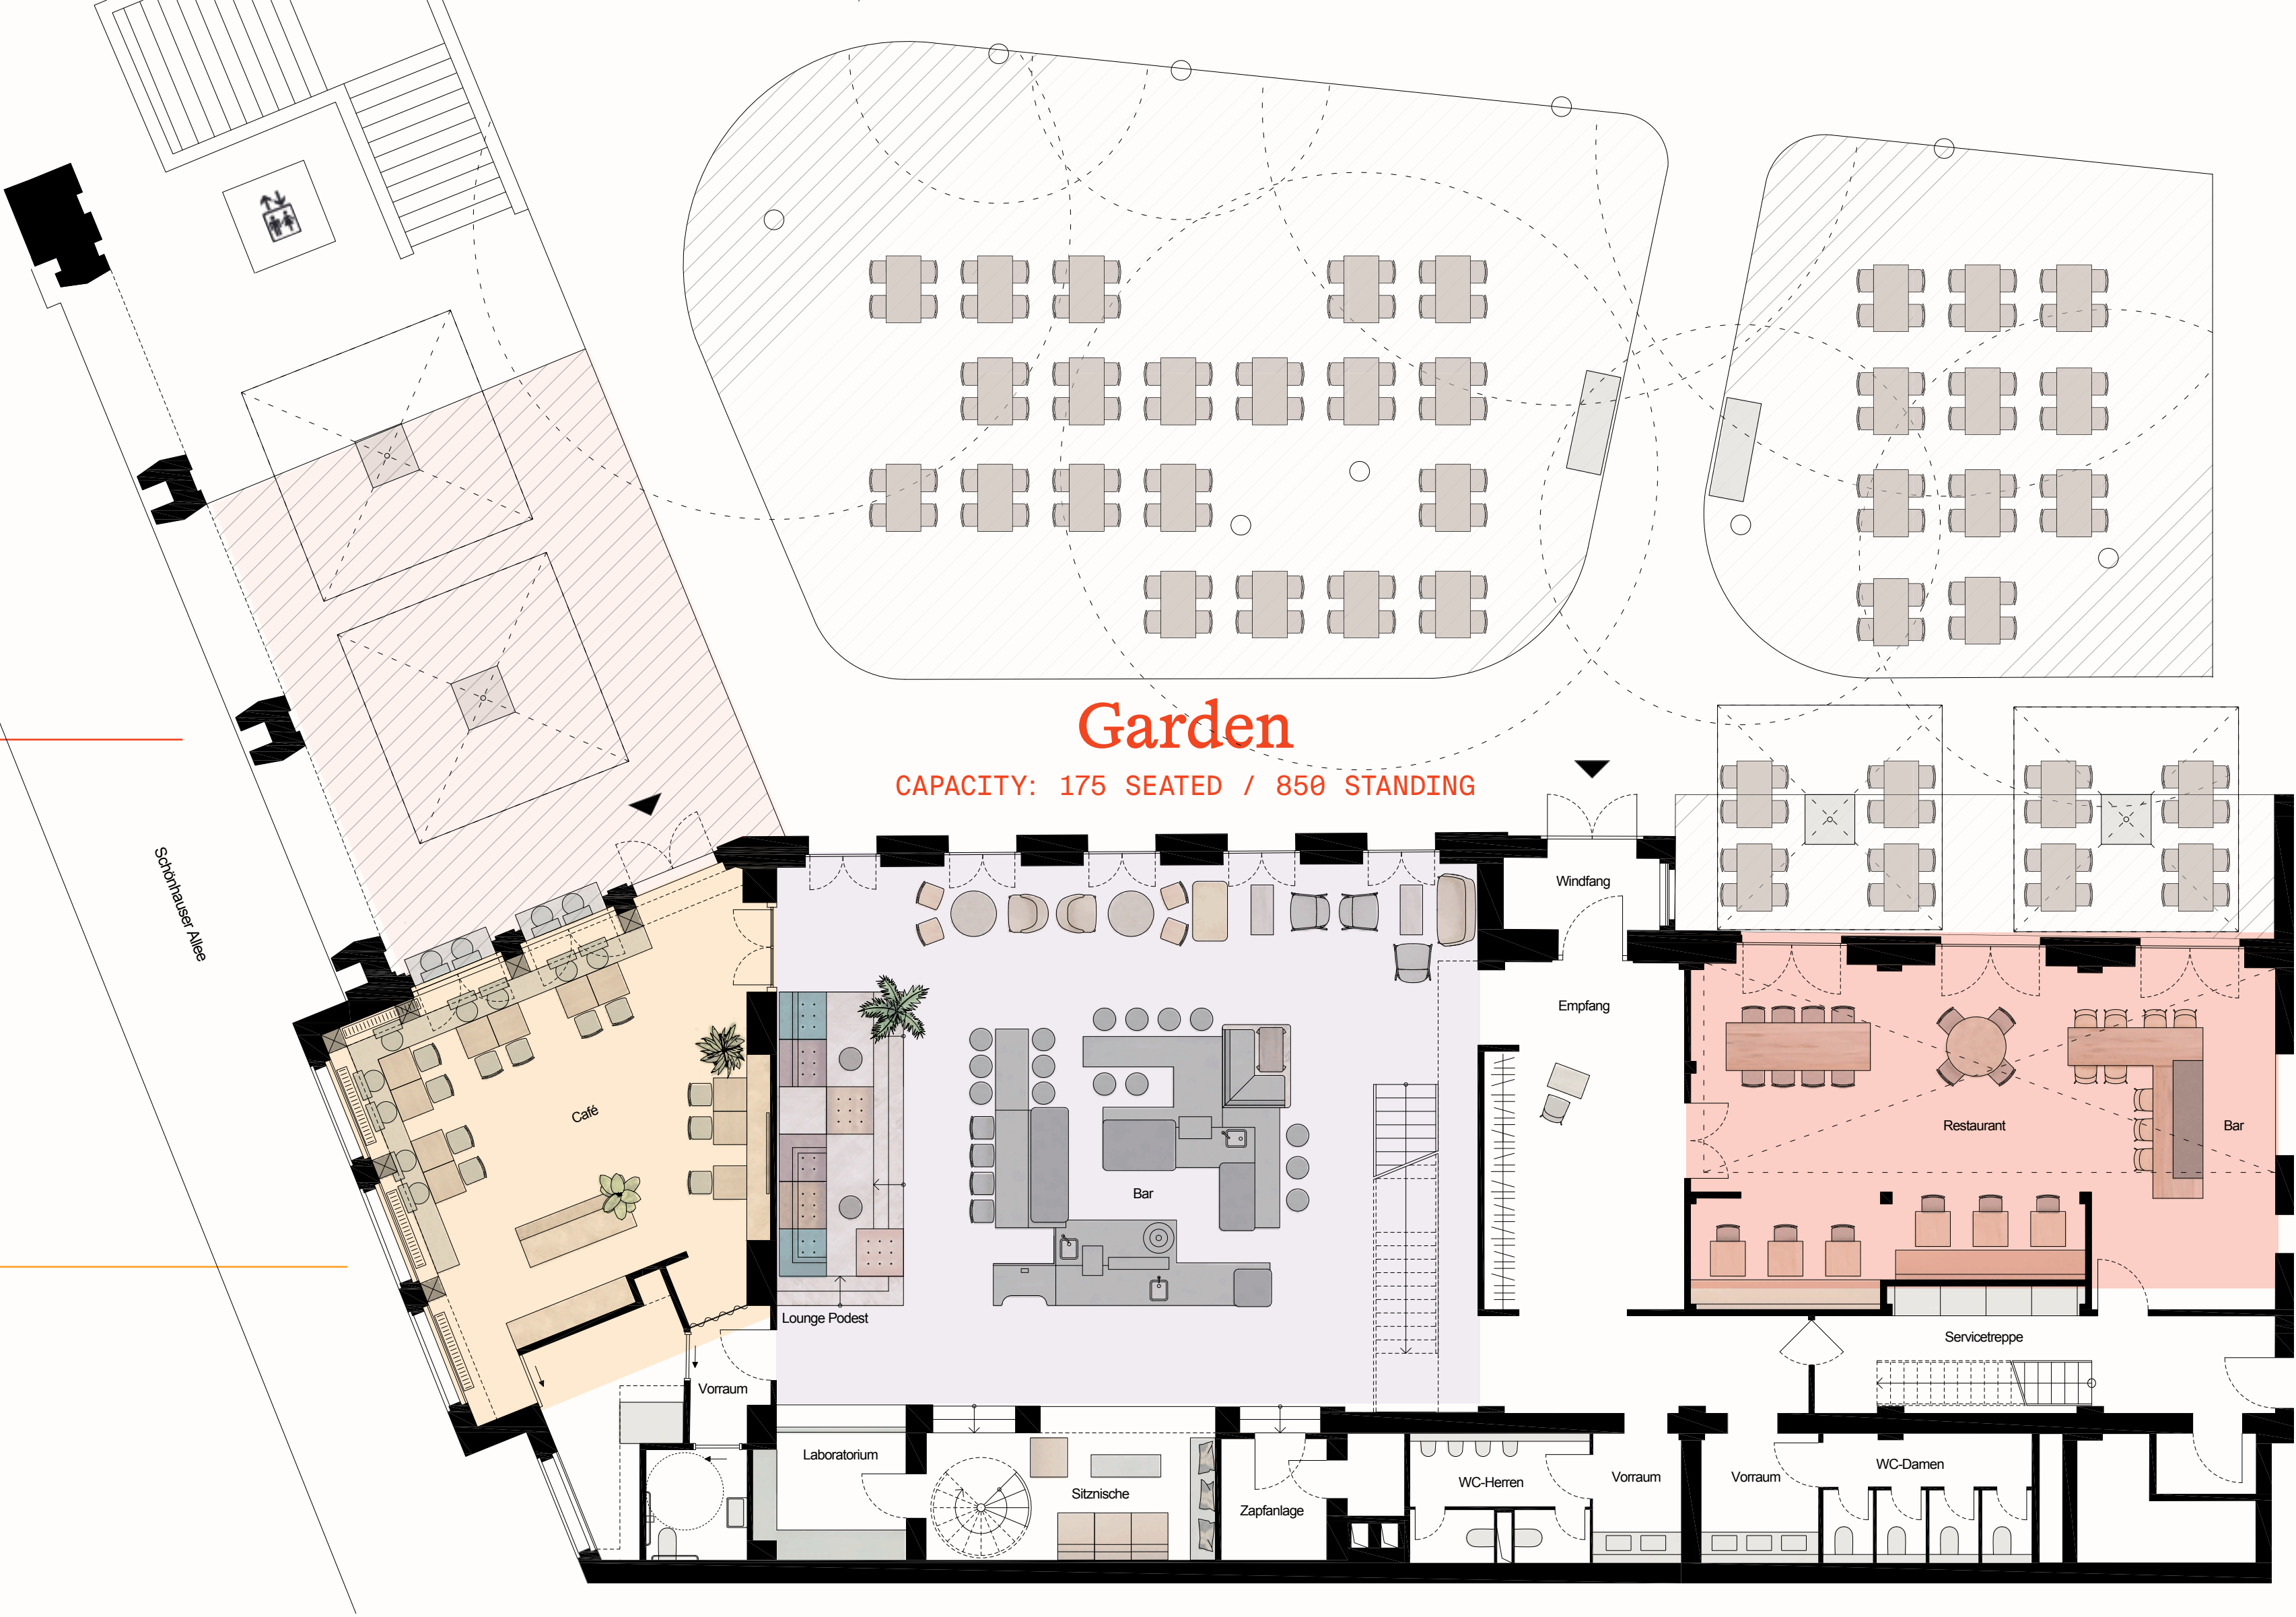

CAPACITY: 175 SEATED / 850 STANDING

Bar

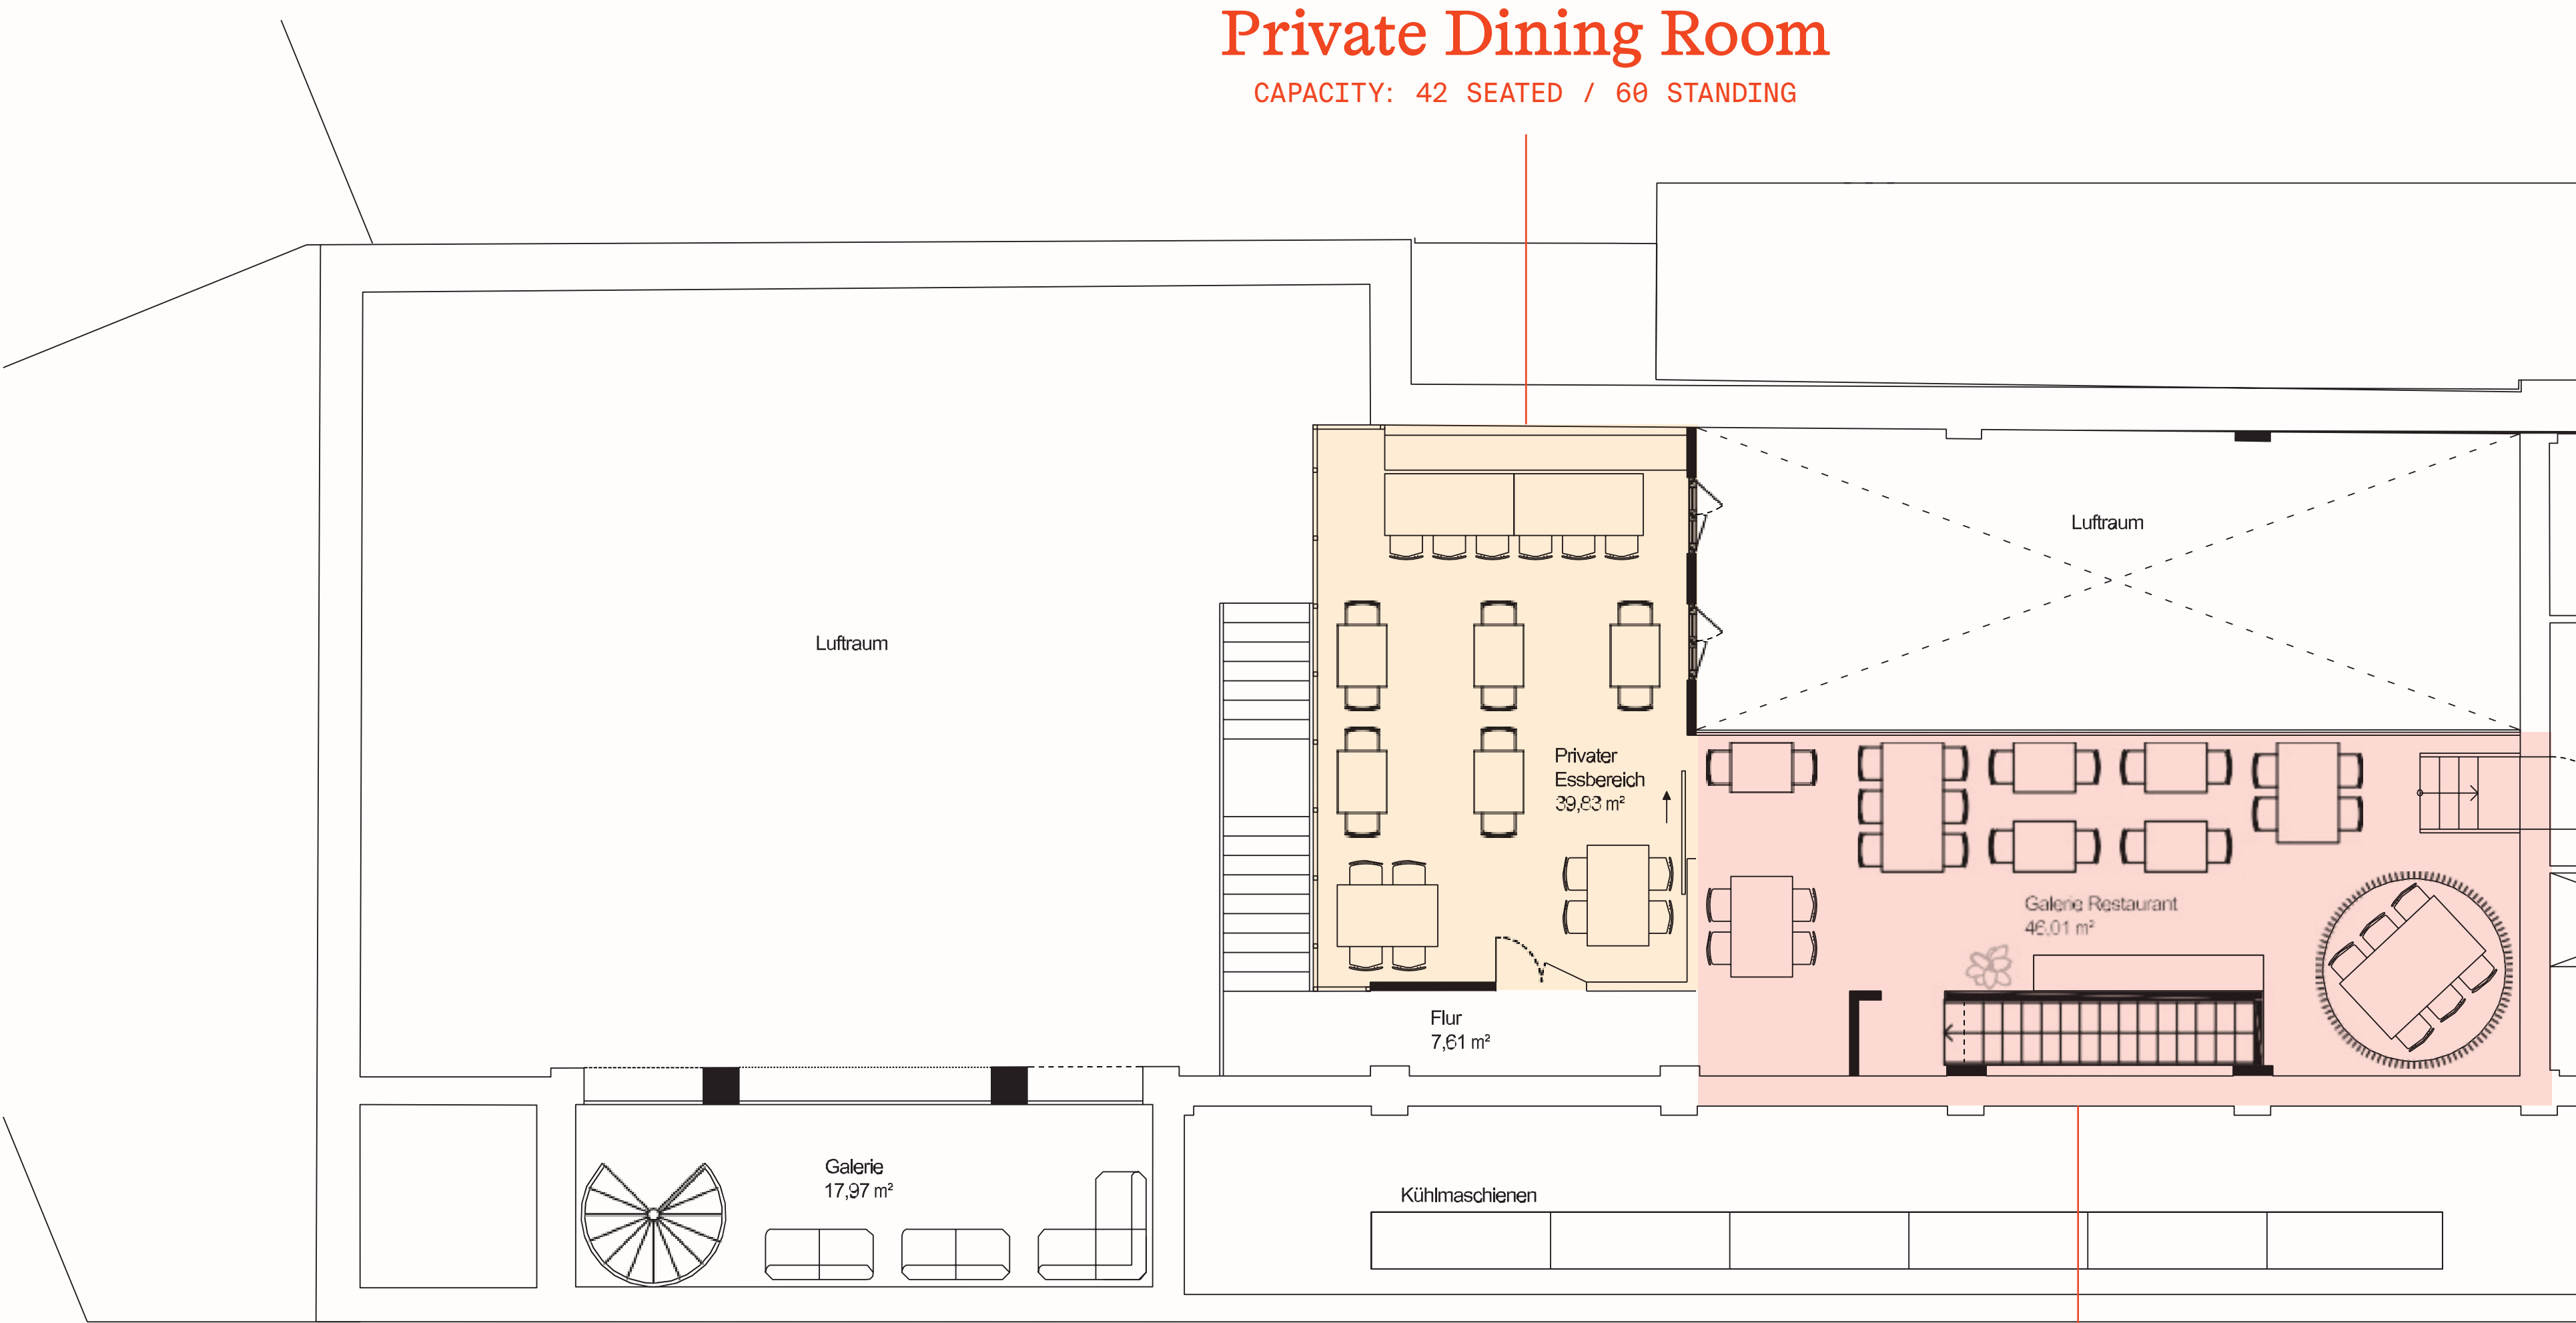

CAPACITY: 124 SEATED / 250 STANDING

Chef's Table Restaurant

CAPACITY: 40 SEATED / 60 STANDING

1st Floor

Gallery

CAPACITY: 33 SEATED / 50 STANDING

Our restaurant— the stage for great evenings

Two floors, open kitchen, plenty of options: Whether it's an intimate dinner or a large event with up to 120 guests - we make room for enjoyment, conversation and exactly the atmosphere you want.

Menu, setting, table layout or the perfect tabletop? Let's plan together - until everything is just right. And when it comes to the table, even the biggest dinner feels like an evening among friends.

Private Dining Room – your stage. Your moment

Some occasions deserve more than a good restaurant – they also call for an original room just for you and your guests. Our Private Dining Room on the upper floor is just that: a place for fine company, great conversations and enjoyable evenings.

Shielded from the hustle and bustle, but with a view of the bar, you can dine in stylish seclusion. Two festively laid tables offer space for up to 42 people. The room is air-conditioned, convertible and - if desired - can be connected to the gallery by a sliding wall.

The gallery – hovering above the action

A few steps up and the view changes: Our gallery is elegantly enthroned above the dining room – airy, flooded with light, with architectural flair and a fine sense for stylish occasions.

Up to 33 guests can be seated here - perfect for receptions, dinners or evenings with perspective. And if it needs to be bigger: Simply open the sliding wall and merge the gallery with the private dining room. Two rooms, one stage – for up to 50 guests.

33 SEATED / 50 STANDING

The bar - where space has an intoxicating effect

Once a ballroom, today a stage for bar culture with great esprit. Eight metre high ceilings, floor-to-ceiling French windows, an airy space made for moving ideas - and right in the middle: the luminous sculpture Space Knot by Kerim Seiler, which hovers above the bar like a cosmic promise.

Whether it's a corporate bash, anniversary or casual get-together - this is the place to celebrate, enjoy and marvel. The sound system delivers fine sound, live music? Always welcome. Thanks to our network of DJs and artists, the evening becomes an event.

A grand gesture, good drinks, refreshing times.

KINK PREMISES

KINK Space – green, light, ready for anything

Plenty of daylight, plenty of plants, plenty of atmosphere. Our KINK Space is made for ideas, meetings and inspiring formats - from creative presentations to private get-togethers.

It can accommodate up to 75 people, seated up to 36 – relaxed, stylish and with plenty of room for more. Projector, screen, microphone, everything is there.

A room that grows with you. And thinks with you. Best during the day - when the light is on and thoughts are flying. But of course the world can also be born here at night. Private dining, corporate events, conference room, event space

36 SEATED / 75 STANDING

The garden – under old trees, far away

Some call it an insider tip. Others call it a short holiday. Our garden is both - an enchanted retreat under old lime and chestnut trees, where the light shimmers, the evening catches the mood and conversations come naturally.

Cool and shady during the day, a sparkling and tranquil canopy of leaves in the evening – perfect for festive dinners, casual receptions or events with soul. There is room for up to 850 guests on 400 square metres. And plenty of good flair. A place that doesn't ask, but invites.

A top-down view of a group of people dining at a restaurant. In the center is a large, round, silver-plated seafood platter filled with a variety of cooked seafood, including large prawns, mussels, oysters, and scallops, garnished with green herbs and lemon slices. Several hands are visible around the table, reaching for the food. One hand on the left is holding a small glass bowl containing a mussel. Another hand on the right is holding an oyster shell. A third hand is reaching into the central platter. The table is dark wood with a visible grain. There are several glasses of white wine and water, some with ice. A small wooden tray with bread and butter is in the upper left. A white napkin with the word 'KILIK' printed on it is visible. The overall atmosphere is intimate and social.

Culinary delights

Culinary delights – honest, sensual, no tinsel

For us, it's about the food, not the decoration. About flavours that seduce. And products that speak for themselves – fresh, seasonal, with a global flavour and a regional backbone. The internationality of our chefs creeps into the recipes.

Whether on the plate or in the glass: we like it creative, but not pretentious. Good wines, exciting drinks, surprising combinations – but always in such a way that the enjoyment takes centre stage, not the concept.

À la carte or a customised menu? We're happy to do it - together, uncomplicated and with flavour.

Because good food doesn't need to be explained. It inspires.

Drinks

Distillery meets laboratory – and flavours are hissing

It's not just about throwing, shaking or stirring - it's about experimenting, distilling and seducing. The future of good taste is bubbling away in our small flavour laboratory right next to the bar: we use the rotary evaporator to conjure up our own distillates, essences and oils - for drinks with depth and dishes with a twist.

Whether herbal-spicy, lemon-light or smoky and wild - what is created here tastes of curiosity, nature and a great deal of skill. Even without alcohol, but never without character.

And if you want to do without alcohol: no problem. Our flavoured water distillates are completely alcohol-free. But with character and plenty of flavour in the glass.

A bit of cuisine, a colourful bouquet of herbal knowledge - and vials full of enjoyment. Open for glances. Ready for surprises.

Drinks – just the way you like them. And sometimes even better

With us you get your favourite drink. Full stop. Whether gin & tonic, old fashioned or something with foam, smoky flavours or rosemary - we mix so that you feel understood. Because for us, genuine hospitality means: not asserting it, but listening, surprising, accompanying.

Connoisseurs? Welcome. The curious? Even more so. Night owls? Always welcome. Every drink is an invitation: to discover, remember, savour.

With conviction, heart – and that KINK-typical desire to do things a little differently. Without airs and graces. But with a hell of a lot of sensuality in the details.

Equipment and infrastructure

- Wifi
- Power current
- Sound system/microphone
- DJ system
- Kitchen on site
- First floor wheelchair accessible
- Truck access
- Sun-protected outdoor area

Additional crockery, furniture and equipment can be booked.

